Last Will and Testament

we, the Senior Class of 1954, of Cape Charles High School of Cape Charles, Virginia, considering ourselves thoroughly drilled in history, English and science, knowing that we are the best and possibly the liveliest class to leave Cape Charles High School, wish to leave on this 2nd day of June in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and fifty-four, our will and testament to be executed in the order that follows:

SECTION I - TO THE FACULTY

Article I-To Mr. Watson: A secretary to help him not to forget to remember.
Article II-To Mrs. Smith: A volume of the latest up to date history books.
Article III-To Mrs. Ames: A committee to keep her file straight and in order.
Article IV-To Miss Tate: A shorthand class knowing as much gossip as we did.
Article V-To Miss Spady: An algebra book with a joke between each problem.
Article VI-To Mr. Willis: A few clients for him to defend.

SECTION II - TO SCHOOL, COACH, AND JANITOR

Article I-To Coach Dan: A football team to go undefeated.
Article II-To our Alma Mater: Football teams trying as hard as the team of '54.
Article III-To James: Shiny tile floors to make cleaning easier.

SECTION III - TO THE CLASSES

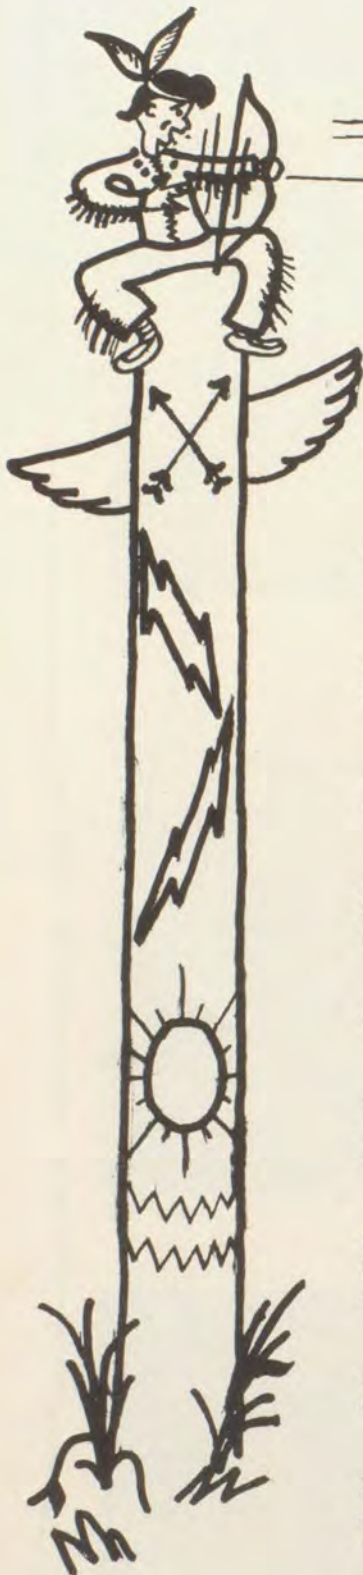

Article I-To the Junior Class: Two of the best seats in the senior home room.
Article II-To the Sophomore Class: Our broken pointed pencils, inkless pens, rubbed out erasers, and dirty old text books.
Article III-To the Freshman Class: The determination to continue for four years.

SECTION IV - TO THE INDIVIDUALS

Article I-Merita Long: Her determination to catch new boy friends to Ellen Downing.
Article II-Mary Sousa: Her will to ask questions in Shorthand Class to Paige Merritt.
Article III-Deanne Etz: Her hope to be able to remember in the future to Jane Joyce.
Article IV-Dick McGrath: Gas to go to Northampton twice each week to Jack McCabe.
Article V-David White: His will to try to get out of classes to Gary White.
Article VI-Bobby Travis: His position on the football team to Bill Scott.
Article VII-Kay Detwiler: Her shiny desk in Chemistry to Diane Lewis.
Article VIII-Janice Bowser: Her hope to get to school every day to Beverly Via.
Article IX-Charles Steffens: His ability to run to Travis Burford.
Article X-Pat Knight: Her cheerleader sweater to Ann Barnes.
Article XI-Pat Nye: Her will to study to Barbara Sechrist.
Article XII-Peggy Lewis: Her pleasing laugh to Ellen Bradford.
Article XIII-Frances Spady: Her ability to type to Ann White.
Article XIV-Mary K. Mears: Her ability in sports to Jean Lee Abbott.
Article XV-Bill Hudson: His physique to "Ears" Akins.

LATEST NEWS FLASHES

Cape Charles, Virginia, June 5, 1969

In the nation's Capitol this morning, a ceremony was held to award the Congressional Medal of Honor to those deserving. We are proud to announce that two of our city's boys are among them. They are Commander William Eric Hudson of the U.S. Coast Guard, and Lt. Colonel Charles Steffens of the U.S. Army.

It was announced today that Major Mary K. Mears will be sent to our Air Force Rocket Base in Iceland. She appears quite thrilled; could it be that she will be the only girl there?! !

Many of us will sit before our 3D and colored television sets tonight to watch the debut of Miss Frances Spady as the leading lady in the Metropolitan Opera.

The corner stone was laid today for the new A.B.C. store which will be run by Mr. Richard McGrath. Dick received his degree (Doctor of Distilleries) from the University of Virginia.

Tonight, for the small fee of $2.00 per person, you may enjoy the lecture, given in the Museum at Eastville (formerly Northampton High School) by Dr. Merita C. Long on Early Roman Relics and History of the Latin Language.

Mr. David White has been promoted to head chemist at the Atomic Energy Incinerary Plant located at Cheapside.

On July 22, 1969, Miss Pat Knight, one of our leading business women, will turn from the business of running her office to the business of washing dishes, cooking and making beds, when she becomes the wife of Mr. ???. Whee boy--what a long engagement this has been!

Mr. and Mrs. (Hmm?) announced the arrival of their second set of twins. The boys born today weight 5 lbs each and have increased their family to six. Mrs. (Hmm?) the former Miss Deanne Etz is coming along nicely.

The patent was released today on a new lime flavored cough syrup for children, developed by Miss Kay Detwiler, a local phamacist. Not only is it lime flavored but also in the shape of a lolly pop.

There are two big announcements in the sports world today, namely Miss Janice Bowser became the National Women's Champion Archer, and Mr. Robert Travis was named the new football coach of State Penn - upps - Penn State.

Through the grape vine, or rather Miss Peggy Lewis - a telephone operator, comes an interesting bit of news. Miss Pat Nye, a secretary to Miss Mary Sousa (the commercial artist) announced in a phone call to the Kellogg Company, Mary's acceptance to do all the Corn Flakes' commercial drawings.

A CHALLENGE-----

Do not choose to be a common man. It is your right to be uncommon - if you can. Seek opportunity--not security. Do not choose to be a kept citizen, humbled and dulled by having the state look after you. Take the calculated risk; to dream and to build, to fail and to succeed. Refuse to barter incentive for a dole. Prefer the challenges of life to the guaranteed existence--the thrill of fulfillment to the stale calm of Utopia.

Do not trade freedom for beneficence, nor dignity for a handout. It is your heritage to think and to act for yourself, enjoy the benefit of your creations, and face the world boldly saying, this I have done. All this is what it means to be an American.
